

Photo of the Week: Jungle, Beach, and Luxury

Posted At : June 21, 2013 10:23 AM | Posted By : Yessenia Soto

Related Categories: Photo of the Week, Certification, Costa Rica, wildlife, travels, ecotourism, Biodiversity, sustainable tourism, beach, luxury

Vea esta publicación en español.

Manual Antonio is one of the most idyllic destinations in Costa Rica. Located on the central Pacific coast, it is famous for its white sand beaches, calm and warm waters, the surrounding rainforest that is rich in biodiversity, and the amazing panoramic ocean views that you can enjoy from many hotels located atop the hills.

One of these hotels is Si Como No Resort Spa & Wildlife Refuge, a stunning boutique hotel that combines nature, sustainability, luxury, and a breathtaking ocean view. Si Como No is a little oasis with 58 rooms nestled in the jungle, two full-service restaurants, two pools, a THX movie theater, a world-class spa and a 30-acre private wildlife refuge.